

Bader Academy and British Values	The Curriculum	During playtimes and lunch	General day to day	After school	With parents
	Pupils are encouraged to share time, resources and taking turns. Children vote on the options they can access during 'options' each week. We will have a pupil led curriculum which builds on interests and embraces variety	Pupils are encouraged to share time, resources and taking turns. Turn taking and fairness are promoted	We encourage children to vote who they believe is the class star of the week We will have a school council who vote on school decisions as a representative of their peers. The school will have an active governing body who vote on key areas of the school	Children will vote on the activities they wish to do in after school club.	Meeting with parents about the how we can make changes to help them and their child Parent questionnaires and advice about Parent View will be promoted through the school website and news letters We will establish parents forums and a friends of Bader Academy group where decision will be made democratically
	Children will be reminded daily about rules of the classroom and are actively encouraged to demonstrate these. Rewards and sanctions exist in classrooms which promote positive adherence to the class rules All pupils will be involved in setting class rules at the beginning of the year	Children will be reminded daily about rules of the playground and dinner hall and are actively encouraged to demonstrate these. Rewards and sanctions exist at playtime and lunchtime which will promote positive adherence to the class rules	Children are reminded daily about rules when in the community and are actively encouraged to demonstrate these. Rewards and sanctions exist when on visits which promote positive adherence to the class rules	Children are reminded daily about rules of the after school club and on transport and are actively encouraged to demonstrate these. Rewards and sanctions exist which promote positive adherence to the afterschool club and transport rules	Parents are reminded of their responsibilities in meetings Home/School agreements are signed We support parents with behaviour and setting boundaries with their child if requested to do so. This is a 2 way relationship and the same works the other way.
	Children will be encouraged to make choices about their learning, social interactions and free time. Children will access a variety of activities of their choosing during specific times each week.	Children will make an active choice about the foods and snacks they drink at break and lunch time. They will be given a variety of clubs and activities to choose from.	A variety of communication and mobility aids are provided which allows those with communication difficulties to interact with the world around them Those children who require them, communication bags are provided.	Children are consulted about activities provided by the school in our after school club	Parents have a greater choice of their child's school provision and are provided with information regarding personal budgets We discuss choice making with parents when their child does not have a voice
	Children explore the feelings of others through daily activities and bespoke lessons. During lessons pupils are encouraged listen and respect others views	During playtimes and lunchtimes pupils will be encouraged to listen and respect others views. We will have a buddy system at playtimes which allows everybody the chance to participate	All staff will be encouraged to respect the views of other staff We respect all cultures and religions and celebrate the positives that these promote	During afterschool clubs pupils will be encouraged to listen and respect others views	We will consult with families when we are making big decisions which will affect them and their child
Teaching of Politics at Bader	It is important that the we adhere to the Dfe Guidance on the sharing political views i.e, All staff have a responsibility to ensure that they act appropriately in terms of their behaviour, the views they express (in particular political views) and the use of school resources at all times, and should not use school resources for party political purposes. However the school will activity encourage young people to take an interest in the functions of politics, politicians and the impact they have on the world around us. Pupils will be encouraged to be members of of the youth parliament, we will promote healthy debate and in line with our change maker principles we will encourage children and young people to stand up for what they believe and empower them to make a difference in the world around them				